

Kids Declutter List

Things to ask yourself when you are deciding what to keep:

1. Do you use it regularly?
2. Does it have sentimental value?
3. Do you have more than one?

Craft Supplies

- Dried Out Markers
- Old Coloring Books
- Dried out Paints
- Old Paintbrushes
- Broken Crayons
- Pencils without erasers
- Used notebooks
- Used Sticker Sheets

Toys

- Broken Toys
- Toys they have outgrown
- Ripped/torn books
- Puzzles with missing pieces
- Games with missing pieces
- Games no longer played
- Cheap toys from fast food restaurants or birthday parties
- Go through toy box

Clothes

- Items that don't fit
- Items that have holes
- Items with stains
- Shoes that are too small
- Hats that are too small
- Clothings that doesn't get worn
- Socks with holes or too small
- Coats that are too small

Bathroom

- Old/Dirty Bathtub toys
- Bathtubs with water squirters (they mold)
- Old hooded towels if too small for kids
- Empty soap containers
- Old loofahs
- Old soaps that aren't being used
- Old scrunchies, barrettes, play makeup

Kids Declutter List

Things to ask yourself when you are deciding what to keep:

1. Do you use it regularly?
2. Does it have sentimental value?
3. Do you have more than one?

Kitchen

- Old plastic cups
- Old plates and flatware
- Old freebie water bottles
- Old cookie cutters
- School Lunch Bags

Sports Gear

- Old Items
- Uniforms that are too small
- Old sports bags

Entertainment

- Scratched DVDs